Debate Tournament Invitation

December 6, 2025

On behalf of Daniel Hand High School in Madison, King School in Stamford, and the CDA, you are invited to our third regular tournament of the 2025-26 season on Saturday, December 6, 2025. We will follow our regular format: one hour for case preparation, four rounds of debate in Varsity and Novice divisions, and a final round between the top two Varsity teams.

With two hosts we do not expect to have to limit entries. However, we may ask some schools to consider changing their choice of location if we have an imbalance between the two locations.

Due to Thanksgiving, we are sending out this invitation and opening registration a week early.

Please fill out this google Attendance Form by the end of day on Friday, November 21, so we can gauge numbers.

Please read the following carefully:

1. Timeline: Please respect the timeline for signing up for this tournament:
 - a. November 17—invitation goes out to all Coaches and is posted on the CDA website.
 - b. November 17, 8AM—tournament opens for registration on Tabroom
 - c. November 21—Coaches should have completed the Google form.
 - d. Wednesday, December 3—teams must be entered in Tabroom.
 - e. December 6, 9AM—tournament begins!
2. Judges: You must have one qualified judge for every two teams or part thereof (in total, not by Novice and Varsity individually). Judges should bring a laptop or tablet to use an electronic ballot.
3. Registration: You must register your teams and judges through tabroom.com. We have written brief Instructions for using Tabroom for CDA can be found here: .
 - a. Debaters: There will be four debate events: Hand Novice, Hand Varsity, King Novice and King Varsity. Please be sure you enter debaters in the event corresponding to the location you plan to attend. Observers should be entered in the Observer event so we have a count for packets.
 - b. Judges: There will be four judge categories—Hand Novice, Hand Varsity, King Novice, King Varsity—corresponding to the debate events. Please be sure you enter judges into the event corresponding to the location you plan to attend.
 - i. Varsity judges should either have judged at a debate tournament before or be former debaters.
 - ii. Someone who has never judged before should be entered as a Novice judge.
 - iii. Tabroom counts judge coverage by event. Don't worry about Tabroom complaining you are not covered in either Varsity or Novice as long as you are covered in total.
 - iv. We move judges between Varsity and Novice if necessary to manage the tournament.
4. Novices: Please abide by the rules for Novice eligibility:
 - a. The Novice division is open to Freshman and Sophomores, regardless of experience or record. They may qualify and participate as Novices in State Finals both years. However, they may move up to Varsity at any time if they or their coach choose, and once having chosen to move up, may not return to Novice. Coaches are encouraged to move a Sophomore up to Varsity if they have been successful as a Freshman but are not required to do so.

- b. A Novice who moves up to Varsity for one tournament to complete a team pairing may return to Novice at their next tournament.
 - c. Juniors who have never debated before in CDA may participate as Novices in their first regular CDA tournament. Otherwise they may only debate in Varsity. They may not participate in State Finals except in Varsity. They may only qualify for State Finals while debating in Varsity.
 - d. Seniors may not participate as Novices in any CDA tournament.
5. Coaches: Debaters cannot attend individually. We expect each team to be accompanied by a Coach or responsible adult approved by your school who will follow and manage the team’s activities and be available for discussion if required. This is a CAS rule, most likely your own school’s rule, and not simply CDA practice. The Coach or chaperone may also serve as a judge.

If you have any questions or comments, please email me at ejrutan3@ctdebate.org .
